OUR MISSION

To build economically strong communities by focusing on the foundation of those communities - the small family-owned and closely-held business.

WHO WE ARE

A collaborative network of committed and passionate individuals who share a mission-driven purpose to make a difference in the lives of millions of small businesses. We do this by providing information, training and resources to all of the professionals who come in contact with these businesses - to ensure access to coordinated, cost-effective services provided at the time that the business requires.

Training & Certification

The Galliard Institute provides professional education to help advisors to enhance their understanding of family businesses, improve their advising skills, and manage their practices. Members receive a 10% discount on webinars, trainings, and events, and have the option of pursuing certification in the Galliard methodology.

Member Distinction and Logo Use

Distinguish yourself from other providers by using the member logo to market your service to clients and advisors—on your website, email signature, and promotional materials.

Network of Professionals

Members of the Galliard Institute have access to each other's expertise through this network of advisors. This network provides advisors opportunities to leverage each other's capabilities, contacts, and resources—for referrals and to build project teams with a common knowledge base. Membership deals on website and email marketing services are available for advisors requiring online communications assistance.

Online Publications

Bi-monthly BrightLights and HighLights e-bulletins, with articles, network updates, video clips and skill-building tools for professionalizing your advising practice. Family Business Beacon, a monthly customizable e-newsletter for family business leaders that members can brand and deliver to clients.

Premium Coaching

Professional Premium members have access to monthly professional coaching calls with experts in the Galliard network, including Galliard founder and president, Lisè Stewart. This is a powerful and unique way to get advice from one of the country's recognized experts in working with small family-owned and closely-held businesses.

We are building local, national, and international coverage to ensure that any family business, regardless of how rural and remote, can get access to the help they need to survive and thrive through the important transitions in ownership, leadership and growth.

Testimonials

"I feel I have a new network to leverage and through those relationships the potential of future business."

Jennifer Fry, MA, Advantage Development Consulting, LLC

"I wish I had known about this group years ago. Much of what I learned in training affirmed that my training in social sciences has tremendous value when working with family business advising."

Marta Collier, Little Rock FBAC Graduate, 2015
